FOR THE SECOND TIME

Santa Rosa, CA, March 5, 2015 – M.A. Silva, the leading manufacturer of cork, glass and packaging, has been named 2015 Best Cork and Bottle Supplier by the Vineyard & Winery Management magazine. This distinction was determined through the evaluation of a survey conducted among 1,000 wine industry professionals. Cork clients appreciate receiving a “very consistent product” with “no TCA” and “a guarantee of quality.” They also touted the company’s “quick fulfillment,” “excellent responsiveness” and “awesome company representatives.” Bottle customers say M.A. Silva “never disappoints,” offering “good pricing and responsiveness,” “superior customer service” and “impeccable product quality.”

“We are honored to be selected again as one of the top wine industry suppliers,” said Neil Foster, President of M.A. Silva USA. “Our unique approach to providing superior cork combined with wine bottles engineered for an ideal seal has led to an overwhelmingly positive response from wineries seeking a reliable, perfect and proven packaging solution. This recognition is a testament to the quality and service we provide.”

M.A. Silva has experienced unprecedented growth. A new building across from the existing facility will be completed this summer. This 70,000-square-foot structure will allow M.A. Silva to increase their cork production and expand their glass storage capacity. With new state-of-the-art laboratories they will be able to offer more services to customers and further their R & D capabilities.
